

WHY IGS?

For nearly two decades, IGS has successfully operated over 1,500 corporate programs and events. Combined, our team boasts over 100 years of experience servicing incentive, meeting, and corporate travel. Since 2001, our top priority is always to connect our clients with the highest quality properties that have the best facilities and provide the utmost service.

As an extension of our existing portfolio of Mexican and Caribbean resorts, we are excited to announce a new collection of adventurous destinations off-the-beaten-path. We believe in great adventures that create authentic experiences for our clients and represent boutique properties that embody the same values we hold so close.

WHAT WE OFFER

> QUALITY LODGES

We are dedicated to our clients and passionate about the properties we represent. That's why IGS only selects properties that are a good fit for our portfolio and that consistently deliver the quality service our clients expect.

> CLIENT CONNECTIONS

We are privileged to serve prominent companies across North America. Over the years, we have earned our clients' trust by providing sound judgment when it comes to connecting them with the ideal property for their needs. A partnership with IGS is a connection to our longstanding client base.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

IGS NAMED 2017 BI WORLDWIDE INSPIRATIONAL PARTNER

"IGS provides unmatched expertise, experience and diligence in matching clients to appropriate properties based on each individual groups' needs. They have an in-depth knowledge of local logistical issues and key contacts in support agencies from DMCs to Airlines, all of which are made available to their customers and making us look good to our clients."
